I am able to understand the impact religion has on believers' lives.

Books

Knowledge

Diwali is the five-day festival of lights, celebrated by millions of Hindus, Sikhs and Jains across the world. Houses, shops and public spaces are decorated with small oil lamps called Diyas or Divas.

Diwali teaches Hindus about the story of Rama and Sita. This story teaches them about good and evil, that good can overcome evil.

What I should be able to do and know now.

Knowledge

I know that celebrations and commemorations happen in places around the world (for example, Chinese New Year in countries of the Asia region, Bastille Day in France, Independence Day in the USA), including those that are observed in Australia (for example, Christmas Day, Diwali, Easter, Hanukkah, the Moon Festival and Ramadan)

I know that I can look in non-fiction books for information on different religions.

I know what a symbol is.

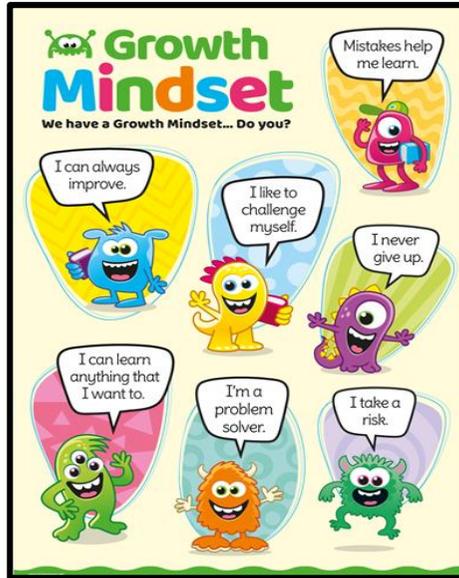

Skills

I can compare different religions by looking at their similarities and differences.

I can ask questions about religion.

Name characters from a story.

Growth Mindset Strategies

What I will be learning

1. How to identify the differences between religious celebrations.
2. How to identify what the Diwali celebration is and what happens during the Diwali.
3. Understand why Diwali is celebrated.
4. How good can overcome evil.
5. How Hindus believe we should live our lives.

What I will know and be able to do at the end of the topic.
