Have a concern about your child online?

It is important to stay calm and consider the steps below:

Find out more

Before doing anything, take a deep breath and try to remain calm. There's lots of information and advice on this site to help you keep your child safe and access support.

Talking to your child

Having a calm and open conversation is one way for you and your child to explore what is happening in an honest and supportive way.

Take action

Discuss your concerns with someone you trust, for example a friend, partner or your child's school. You can also talk to a professional at the NSPCC helpline on 0808 800 5000.

Year 4 and Antarctica

With the help of the British Antarctic Survey (BAS) Year 4 have been researching the region. We have investigated its history as well as examining glaciers and seeing how BAS' great work helps with conservation in the region. Our learning culminated with a half hour chat with real scientists based in Antarctica.
