E-SAFETY... Have you heard about ... DITTO?

DITTO, is a free online safety magazine for schools and parents.

This month DITTO is a YouTube special edition; there's much more to YouTube than many people think. A more in-depth knowledge can help parents at home to understand some of the functionality and restrictions that are available.

Did you know ...

The domain youtube.com was activated on 14th Feb 2005.

400 hours of video are uploaded every 60 seconds.

Over 1 billion hours of videos are watched daily.

Kwik Cricket Festival @ Alnwick Cricket Club

Thursday saw 16 pupils from school compete in the North Northumberland Kwik cricket festival organised by the Northumberland Cricket Board. Both teams showed excellent sportsmanship, which was commented on by others 😊. There was excellent batting and fielding from both teams and some fantastic catching! Our red team worked hard in the final which resulted in a win and trophy for Shilbottle, as well another day of cricket for the players. Good luck @ Stocksfield in two weeks as you represent both Shilbottle and North Northumberland 😊

Y5/6 Boys and Girls Football

On Monday 20 pupils to Longhoughton for school games qualifiers. The Y5 / Y6 girls played well and enjoyed the experience. While the Y5 boys ended up in the final against Hipsburn where it was 0 – 0 even after extra time which meant it went to penalties 😞 Our boys competed to the end and there was only one save in it! They came a VERY well earned second 😊

WELL DONE EVERYONE

Y3 Tennis

Wednesday, saw 16 pupils from Year 3 head to Alnwick tennis courts to join 96 other pupils in a tennis festival. The pupils all showed excellent commitment and respect for others during the event 😊 Our Year 3 team were placed 2nd, which means that 8 pupils will represent Shilbottle Primary at the Northumberland Y3 tennis finals in Orth Tyneside in a few weeks' time 😊
