E-Safety: Kids' Apps? Watch Out ...

Are you aware of what your children are up to online? Perhaps you monitor their Internet usage and generally keep an eye on their Internet history and activity, but what about the apps on their phone or tablet devices? This is an area that is catching a lot of children and parents out. Some apps are simply inappropriate for kids and some children know this but take advantage of their carer's naivety, but some apps are easily abused or misused and can put children at risk.
