Shilbottle newsletter

Dear Parents and carers,

As a number of staff, including myself, are attending training on both Thursday and Friday of this week I thought I would send a brief newsletter today with a full newsletter showing our celebration achievements and curriculum information to be sent on Monday.

Return to School

The children who have returned to school this week have done so brilliantly. They have demonstrated their ability to transition into their new classes without any issues. Our new children who have joined Reception have made an excellent start to their time with us and you would think they have been here for months already as they meet all their new experiences with enthusiasm and ease. This demonstrates the importance and success of our transition programme and the hard work of the staff to ensure the children are prepared for the next steps in their learning journey.

Beamish—Thursday 15th September

This weekend is your last chance to find those Victorian child outfits ready for next week (if possible). I am sure the children will all have a great time and please note they will be collected from school from the usual collection points at 5:15pm.
